Rick Davis (right) and Christopher Vazquez are the dynamic duo behind Amaryllis, Inc., DC's premiere floral and event design studio. They are responsible for some of the city's top events, often using local floral product from their Southern Maryland farm. Their capabilities extend far and wide, ranging from creating dramatic florals to crafting full-scale productions with unique specialty furniture, custom decor, and innovative design. The duo is proficient in navigating some of DC's most renowned venues and consistently collaborate with a discerning clientele.

A reputation of excellence and creativity marks Amaryllis as the Face of Floral & Event Design. Boasting a 50,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility and an arsenal of talented floral designers, artists, carpenters, fabric technicians, and installation experts, the team at Amaryllis has been executing exceptional events throughout the DMV for over two decades and continue to lead with each and every soiree.
