Dr. Angela Austin is a Board Certified Pediatric Dentist and the founder of Alexandria Children's Dentistry. Dr. Austin is proud to be one of the Top Dentists in both the Prestigious Washingtonian Magazine and the Northern Virginia Magazine! She earned her dental degree in 2004 from The University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine. Following dental school, Dr. Austin served as Chief Resident and completed an additional two years of training from Children's National Medical Center in Washington, DC. to become a pediatric dental specialist.

"I truly believe in the prevention of dental problems and also educating families about healthy smiles for life. A person's impression of the dentist is developed at a very young age and I take this very seriously. My philosophy on respecting children and providing gentle dental treatment in a positive and exciting atmosphere is essential to my personal, professional and ethical standards. The way I practice dentistry embodies all of this, while having tons of fun at the same time!"
