The professionals at Bernard R. Wolfe & Associates provide Wealth Management Strategies and Institutional Investment Services to a broad client base. We pride ourselves on making sure each client experience is more memorable than the one before. We understand the trust our clients put in us regarding their financial situation throughout the various stages of their lives. People do business with people they like and trust. We value our clients and try to create for them an emotional benefit as well as a financial benefit. Construction of our clients' portfolios is entirely based on their individual goals, objectives, and risk tolerance. We provide financial guidance to both individual and business clients to assist them in making pertinent decisions regarding their personal and professional financial goals. Our client base is extremely diverse, ranging from young individuals just getting started to retirees; and from large and small corporations to professional athletes.
