Have you or a loved one been accused of a crime? At Greenspun Shapiro PC, we believe it is crucial for anyone accused of a crime, or who is the subject of a criminal investigation, to have experienced counsel to vigorously protect their rights and ensure that the matter is fully investigated from the earliest stages. Our lawyers understand the relevant law, know how to investigate and prepare the case, and are skilled at presenting important information to the judge and jury. The attorneys of this Martindale

Hubbell AV rated law firm handle all types of criminal matters in all state and federal courts, ranging from reckless driving and DUI, to drug possession and distribution, to sex crimes and murder, including high profile and extremely complicated cases such as the representation of the so-called DC Sniper. Our clients benefit from the integrity and hard-won reputation of our attorneys, who are well known in the legal community for their experience, tenacity and dedication to their clients.
